PARIS.

Madam,

We understand that you will be returning to America shortly, and should you not have secured your return passage already, we should be very pleased to have your patronage.

No doubt you already know of the Cunard Steamers and the Cunard Service, so that it is unnecessary for us to assure you that both are excellent in every respect.

Our representative Mr. C o p e will take the liberty of calling on you within a few days, and provided that his visit does not inconvenience you, we ask you to be so kind as to receive him.

We beg to enclose our latest Sailing List, and remain,

Yours faithfully,

COMPAGNIE NORD ATLANTIQUE.
